I am running for PSM again, because after my last attempt, I have become determined to fully enrich myself within this Union, so as to repay everything its current members have done for me. Having engaged with events throughout the year, such as St Pattys day HIVE, BEER bar quizzes & being a member of the Debates Society, I know large amounts of the Union's membership body & believe that I can serve them well on board. Having written for the Glasgow Guardian & Qmunicate magazine, I also know members of other major student bodies, so can help assist & organise Cross-Campus Collaboration.
