I have always been a guu fan but my goodness my love for her has grown this year. I am so so excited for another year of games antics and to hopefully continue our rising success after a beautiful month of games (big claps for Becca)... everybody get hyped because BADGE really is in her comeback era. After our drinking games accompanied by the beautiful sounds of ent's open mic and the impressive iron stomach performance of (did someone say debates convener?) Isaac, I would be very keen to explore some more cross committee collaboration this year. I am also excited to make the most of having a past convener who will be sticking around for the coming year and utilise her expertise to give me a running start with the jobs I'm less familiar with such as maintaining our games machines and tables. I have absolutely loved my time on games so far and would be honoured to captain the ship of the hottest, silliest and funnest committee around.
