Hiya! My name's Ewan and I'm thrilled to be running for the Convener of Entertainments position at the GUU. I drunkenly stumbled across the 'Ents' Committee last St Paddy's Day, and, after performing a questionable rendition of Paolo Nutini's 'Candy', I have since become a passionate committee member.

After assisting with the many music events, coordinating the weekly Open Mic in Beer Bar and practically living in the Union over the past year, I have become incredibly familiar with the inner workings of one of the oldest, largest and most successful student unions in the UK.

From singing with mates to performing small gigs, music has always been a massive part of my life. I believe in creating platforms where bedroom musicians can showcase the full extent of their talent. Thus, I will strive to make the GUU a hub for UofG's music community and endeavour to make sure our music scene and club nights reflect the diversity of our student body!

Thanks for taking the time to read this, I hope it struck a chord with you (you're welcome for the pun) and I look forward to making some more noise in the Union!
